JESUS WAS A GREAT COMMUNICATOR...

He just had to be to attract such great crowds who sought him out to hear his words. He taught with authority and showed forth the power of God through his healing touch. Jesus also understood that his relationship with the Father was most important because it was from this relationship he drew the power of his words. It was from his communication with the Father in prayer that he found the inner strength to do the work for which he was sent into the world. He sought out deserted places where he could find a peace and quiet to open his heart to the Father and so be filled with the continued power and love of God.

Each of us prays in different ways and we find God in different places. In prayer we reach out our hands as we open our spirit to God looking for comfort, hope, peace or seeking such things for those we love. However we open our hearts to allow the power of God's love to touch our hearts is the best way that we pray. Jesus found his way in deserted places. We might find ours in the busy rush hour or in the quietness of a walk. The important thing is to find it and visit that place everyday so that we can draw the same strength that Jesus found to allow us to face each day and go forth to do good for others as Jesus did...Fr. Joe

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Job 7:1-4, 6-7

In this passage, Job laments the drudgery and pain all people sometimes experience in life. He talks of troubled days and restless nights. But he does mention that the days move along swiftly, which can remind us that our time here on earth is quite limited and should be well spent.

Second Reading: I Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Paul explains to the Corinthians that he has no choice, but must preach the gospel. He tells of making himself all things to all people, in order to save some of them. He reminds them that he does this willingly, in the hope of sharing in the blessings of the gospel.

Gospel: Mark 1:29-39

Jesus cured Simon and Andrew's mother of a fever, then others with illnesses or demons came to see him. He cured those who were ill, and cast out the demons of the others. Then he went off and prayed alone until his followers sought him out. Jesus and his disciples then moved on to other villages to proclaim the good news.

WHEN SOMEONE WE LOVE BECOMES ILL

All- powerful and ever-living God the lasting health of all who believe in you, hear us as we ask your loving help for the sick; restore their health, that they may again offer joyful thanks in your church.

Every now and then we try to update our prayer list of names of the sick and special intentions. We have alphabetized the names in the hopes of making them easier to read. There are some names that we in the parish office cannot associate with a person who made the request to pray for them. Please look over the list and if you requested prayers for a person please either call the office or e mail Fr. Joe to let us know if you wish to continue to be on this prayer list.
